

NEWS FROM THE BEGINNING READERS

from Kate Ambrose, Supervisor: Beginning Readers

T-SHIRTS

We have given your child a t-shirt that is to be worn EVERY Thursday from now on. We will be headed out on our Field Trips on Thursday Afternoons and so we would love all Beginning Readers to wear their shirts for easy identification on the trip.

BATHING SUITS

Please make sure to pack a bathing suit, towel, and shoes that can get wet every day with your child. You never know when the hot sun might be too much and we will need to take a few slides down the water slide or play a game of Drip, Drip, Splash!

PEANUT FREE

Thank you to all those who have sent back their signed agreement to have a peanut free summer for Beginning Readers. If you haven't sent it in yet, please send it tomorrow!

WEDNESDAY FOLDERS

Starting on Wednesday, July 7, 2010, a folder will be sent home with your child that will include some work samples from the previous week. Please sign the paper stapled to the folder and return the folder, with work samples inside, the next day (Thursday). All the work your child has completed over the summer will be sent home on the last day of camp.
